

ASPETUCK HEALTH DISTRICT
Invites applications for the position of:
Public Health Nurse

The Aspetuck Health District, a public health agency serving the towns of Westport, Weston, and Easton, is seeking applicants for the full-time position of Public Health Nurse.

Responsibilities: The Public Health Nurse provides community health services in an expanded public health nursing role. Duties include coordination of contact tracing efforts of communicable diseases, assisting in the analyses of surveillance data, development of community health education programs and presentations, and administering immunizations, testing, and screening services in the Health District's travel and other clinics; and does related public health work.

Qualifications: Minimum requirements include a Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing granted by an accredited college or university with a National League for Nursing approved Community Health Nursing Program and possession and maintenance of a State of Connecticut Registered Professional Nursing License is required. Valid license to operate a motor vehicle in Connecticut. Applicant must be extremely organized and able to work independently, have excellent verbal and writing communication skills, ability to establish and maintain positive working relationships diplomatically and effectively with other employees, community leaders, allied agencies and organizations, the public, and volunteers.

Salary: This is a full-time 35 hours per week position with full benefits. Salary commensurate with education, experience.

To Apply: Please direct resumes and letters of interest and/or inquiries relating to the recruitment and selection to the attention of Pamela Scott, Human Resources Division as outlined below:

Aspetuck Health District
Human Resources
180 Bayberry Lane
Westport, CT, 06880

Email: publichealth@wwhd.org.

Application Deadline: Open until filled.

An Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer